Elder - London

Older people deserve to live their own lives, in their own homes, all while getting the care they need. As an award winning live-in care agency, Elder connects older people to vetted, self-employed carers who move into the home and help enhance the experience of later life. Using smart matching technology – Elder takes into account personality and lifestyle fit, alongside skill and experience when finding the right carer.

Elder was founded in 2015 with a mission to 'reinvent what it means to age', delivering quality of life and peace of mind, and making personalised, in-home care more affordable and accessible. They've facilitated over 7 million hours of live-in care in more than 500 towns and cities throughout the UK.

- Provides personalised, one-to-one care
- Supports many needs, from hygiene to housekeeping
- Encourages greater independence
- Provides a better continuity of care
- Quality care can be arranged quickly
- Every carer is DBS checked, assessed, and referenced
